DART honors civil rights activist Rosa Parks

A seat on each bus will be reserved on February 4 for Rosa Parks Day

This Friday, February 4 is civil rights activist Rosa Parks' birthday, and to honor her legacy DART will "reserve" the first seat on every bus for Mrs. Parks.

Rosa Parks, born in 1913 in Tuskegee, Alabama, was an active member of the Montgomery chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and advocated for racial justice. On December 1, 1955, she refused to give up her seat on a Montgomery public bus for a white man, in defiance of "Jim Crow" segregation laws. This brave action sparked the Montgomery Bus Boycott, a critical part of the Civil Rights Movement.

"Rosa Parks did something revolutionary for her time—she stood up for herself as a black woman during Jim Crow in the South," said DART's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee co-chairs, Georisha McGregor and Catlin Curry. "Her single action is a reminder to us all that in order to move towards a more equitable future that we have to take action ourselves. As a public transportation provider, we have the opportunity each and every day to work alongside our communities and riders to create a more equitable transportation system. As co-chairs for DART's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion efforts, we are proud to be part of that work."

February 4th is now known as Rosa Parks Day, and DART has chosen to commemorate the occasion by dedicating a seat on every bus in honor of Mrs. Parks. This is the second year that DART has honored Rosa Parks Day, the first being in 2020. DART proudly salutes Mrs. Parks and reaffirms its commitment to providing equitable public transportation in Greater Des Moines.
